November 29, 1999 - for Immediate Release

DENVER, CO – BabyJane Records is proud to announce the release of Arc of a Buzz by composer and multi instrumentalist Michael Stanwood. The CD marks the culmination of a five year process involving many of Colorado's most sophisticated and intriguing musicians. Listeners can preview the CD online at www.babyjane.com.

Defying easy categorization, Buzz music evokes comparison to world music and new age while remaining atypical of either genre. It comes from Stanwood's notion that there is a common vibration, or buzz, underlying all musics and indeed all life. Buzz music is deep, breathing with energy and emotion – a very alive and unusual sound, blending world music instrumentation with recording studio compositional techniques. It contains both visceral and spiritual energy in one resonating embrace.

Of Stanwood, Corky Siegel of Chamber Blues says, "There are a few musicians who understand the unifying healing and uplifting qualities of music, and can effortlessly inject their joy into everything they touch. Michael Stanwood is one amazing man and Arc of a Buzz is his beautiful story."

Colorado new-music audiences will be familiar with the lineup from Stanwood's acclaimed Buzz Band. The Buzz Band attracted attention from audiences and critics alike with its unusual and moving combination of world instruments, exceptional musicians, and textural original compositions that draw on the rhythms of our bodies and our cells.

Appearing on Arc are: Michael Stanwood, Thomas Blomster, Vickie Dodd, Chris Hewitt, James Hoskins, Gannon Kashiwa, Margot Krimmel, Mark McCoin, Jesse Manno, Trixie Merkin, Timothy Quigley, Craig Ross, Lyn Skinner, Mike Vargas, Paul Vastola. Engineered by Gannon Kashiwa, Ben Tanler, Jeremiah Moore, Mark McCoin, Mickey Houlihan.
